

CLYDE CONLEY

1968 - 1969

Clyde Conley was a native of Johnson county and was a Republican. He served as master commissioner of Johnson circuit court for five years and was circuit court clerk there from 1952 to 1958.

Conley was in the real estate and insurance business.

Clyde Conley died in 1969 at the age of 49 while in office during the Governor Louie Nunn administration. He was buried at Van Hoose Cemetary in Nippa, Kentucky.

Conley and his wife had one son.